ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE.

FIRST ANNUAL EXAMINATION.

(N. W. Chronicle, June 27, 1868.)

We present to our readers this week a full report of the recent examination at St. John's College.*)

This institution is beautifully located on a knoll, bordering on one of those many lakes that diversify so charmingly our Minnesota landscape. Its proximity to the thriving, fast growing town of St. Cloud, yields it another and increasing advantage.

The College is under the charge of the Benedictines, the mention of which time-renowned order is sufficient to speak its praise. Rt. Rev. Rupert Seidenbusch, fourth of the mitred Abbots in our American hierarchy, is the zealous President of St. John's.

Too much credit to Abbot Seidenbusch and the learned faculty of St. John's cannot well be given — their efforts in the cause of Catholic education in our nascent State will one day be testified to in its records, — and St. John's, growing with their growth and strengthening with their strength, will one day treasure their memories as the "Mountaineers" guard zealously that of a "Dubois and Brute."

This is the only Catholic College in Minnesota. If it receives that encouragement, due to its merit, we will be satisfied and the College prosperous.

The following are the names of the congregation of St. Benedict now in this State:

*) The first Catalogue ever published was that of 1869—1870.

Rev. Alexius Edelbrock is the able Dean of this College.

The following is the report:

ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE.

SECOND ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT.

(N. W. Chronicle, July 3, 1869.)

---

The progress of Catholicity can always be traced by its visible works. Churches, schools, hospitals and academies and colleges mark its course.

The annual examination, which took place at St. John's College on the 24th ult. was a satisfactory proof that here in Minn., in the heart of a country, which was a wilderness a few years ago we have a Catholic college, which in its regular course of studies can favorably compare with other colleges in much older States.

The institution was founded by the late Very Rev. Demetrius di Marogna, O. S. B., and is at present supervised by the Rt. Rev. Rupert Seidenbusch, O. S. B., Abbot of St. Louis Abbey, which immediately adjoins the College.

The fame of the schools of this order is widespread all over Europe.

There are at present in the College about 84 pupils, forty of whom are going through a classical course. For besides being a College for Divinity students, there is a distinct department for students wishing to receive a business education alone.

Among the visitors at the College during the annual commencement were the Rt. Rev. Bishop Grace, who arrived at the College from St. Joseph, where he had officiated at the ceremonies of laying the cornerstone of the new church there, Rev. John Ireland, St. Paul; Jas. McGolrick, Minneapolis; Meinulph Stukenkemper, St. Cloud; Augustine Burns, Joseph Vill, Corb. Gastbiehl, Richmond, and Corn. Wittmann.

The programme of the entertainment was well selected and afforded much pleasure both to the visitors and pupils.

The following is a list of premiums and we are happy to say that in the exercises, recitations and examination in the different branches of study our St. Paul boys held their own.
